UPDATE: Degginger Foundry Inc. reopens after reaching a payment arrangement with the Revenue Department

July 13, 2013

The taxpayer and the Revenue Department were able to reach an acceptable payment arrangement Thursday afternoon. The business assets have been released and the business reopened.

The original release is below.

State closes Degginger Foundry Inc., for not paying state sale and withholding taxes

July 8, 2015

TOPEKA – Wednesday, Kansas Department of Revenue civil tax enforcement and Shawnee County Sheriff's officers seized the business assets of Degginger Foundry Inc., which owed $24,636 in state sales and withholding taxes.

Officers seized all known bank accounts, on-site cash, business inventory and personal property assets belonging to owner Timothy F. Degginger. The foundry at 436 N Crane, Topeka, Kan., was sealed closed the assets will be sold at public auction to pay the taxes owed.

Warrant execution occurs when all other collection attempts, including multiple letters, telephone calls, letters of impending legal action, tax liens filed with the local district court to secure the debt, previous bank levies and on-site till taps are executed to bring the taxpayer into compliance have been exhausted.

Only after several unsuccessful attempts does the department take the action of seizing assets, which in this instance resulted in the business being closed.

The revenue department's standard practice is to continually encourage delinquent taxpayers, who are not lawfully filing or paying taxes - such as sales or withholding - to voluntarily enter into a repayment agreement.
